

Home Work Pandemic Issue

Today I worked at home. I saw a(n) _____ (adjective) _____ (Noun) behind my colleague on Zoom. It _____ (verb, past tense) _____ (adverb) through a _____ (adjective) _____ (noun) and made a noise like a(n) _____ (adjective) _____ (noun).

It made me _____ (adverb)!

After a bit, when no one was looking, I snuck out and got some _____ (noun) and _____ (noun) and _____ (verb, past tense) them quickly before my next call.

I went on mute because _____ (person or animal) started to _____ (adverb) _____ (verb).

After Zoom, I really got productive. I started _____ (noun) and finished _____ (noun).

I've updated my lists and tasks and priorities by _____ (noun), _____ (noun), _____ (noun) and lastly by _____ (noun).

When the work day was over, I _____ (verb, past tense) and it made me feel _____ (adjective). All in all, it was a _____ (adjective) day at the office. I am ready for tomorrow and grateful for the work.
